

ABOUT TO ENTER ETERNITY "DAGO FRANK" CONFESSES AND CLEARS LIEUT. BECKER

"Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louie" and Harry Vallon Fired Shots That Killed Rosenthal—"Whitey Lewis" Did No Shooting—"Dago Frank" Not Present.

ALL GUNMEN INCLUDED IN THE PLOT TO MURDER

But "Dago Frank" Says He and "Whitey Lewis" Didn't Actually Shoot—It Was a Fight of Gamblers, and Becker Had Nothing to Do With It—Warden of Sing Sing Says He Hopes No Other Person Will Ever Enter the Electric Chair.

Albany, N. Y., April 13.—Shortly before "Dago Frank" Cirofio went to the death chair in Sing Sing prison early today he told Warden Clancy that "Gyp the Blood" Rosenthal, "Lefty Louie" Rosenberg and Harry Vallon, an informer, fired the shots which killed Herman Rosenthal, for which crime the four gunmen paid their lives.

As far as I know, Becker had nothing to do with this case, the gunman also declared. "It was a gamblers' fight."

Cirofio averred he was 5 miles away at the time the crime was committed and that "Whitey Lewis" Rosenberger, although present at the scene of the shooting, did not fire any of the shots. Cirofio made no attempt, however, to deny that he was included in the original plot to slay Rosenthal, even admitting that two nights before the murder was slain by men, who he thought were detectives.

In the Gray Murder Case. The condemned man also admitted that early on the night of the murder killing he was in the gray "murder car" with the gunman, but he insisted that he left them before they shot the gambler. He did not explain why he left, but he said he was afraid of the shooting, but two reasons are advanced. One is that he became frightened and the other is that he wanted to go to the electric chair, Jean Gordon, who had been arrested.

The statement, which was made verbally in the principal keeper's office at 4 a. m. today, was made by the inmate at the place on the part of Cirofio's mother and his sister for the truth. They had been here and made an unsuccessful appeal to the governor to save the prisoner's life. Returning to the prison near dawn, they were met by the warden and taken to the office, where they met Cirofio. Mr. Clancy came to Albany today and told his story to Superintendent John B. Riley, of the state prison department and Governor Glynn. The warden first issued a formal statement, after hearing a part of what Cirofio told him and later added details which included Cirofio's admission that he and other gamblers had sought Rosenthal two nights before the slaying.

Statement of the Warden. The formal statement of the warden follows:

"About 8 o'clock Sunday night Rosenthal asked me to take him to the electric chair, but I refused, saying he had nothing to do with the shooting, he was not there. I went over and asked Frank Cirofio why he did not tell the truth. He replied that he knew what was going on, but that he was afraid to tell the whole story. He said if he did he would kill his fifty men in New York he could name. He said, 'I don't care about myself, if my family I care for.'"

"I caused Frank Cirofio to be brought from the condemned cell house to the principal keeper's office about 4 o'clock Monday morning. He made the following, among other statements, in the presence of myself, Principal Keeper McNulty, the chaplain, his mother and his sister. They urged him to tell the whole truth. He hesitated and said:

"I don't want to make any statement for the public. I do not fear for myself, but I do fear for you."

"His sister replied: 'Don't have any fear for us, we will take care of ourselves. God will protect us.'"

"His mother and sister continued to urge him to tell the truth. He said: 'I did not do the shooting. The men who fired the shots were Gyp the Blood, Lefty Louie and Harry Vallon.'"

"He said: 'I was five miles away at the time. So far as I know Becker had nothing to do with this case. It was a gamblers' fight.'"

Told Some Lies on Stand.

"He mentioned several roads on gambling houses leading to the story Shapiro told to Commissioner Dougherty was true. He said: 'I told some lies on the stand, but I told the rest of the boys. The testimony about the conversation with me in the car on the way down was not true. I was in Bridge Webster when the arrangements were made. I did not know just what the arrangements were. I knew something was coming off. I did not see Louis Beck on the stand as it happened. There were guns there, but not the kind as I used.'"

BODIES OF FOUR DRAW THOUSANDS

East Side Turns Out En Masse—10,000 Persons See Corpse of "Dago Frank" Crowds Emotional.

New York, April 13.—The bodies of the four gunmen executed in Sing Sing prison today were brought back to this city. That of "Whitey Lewis" Rosenberger was given immediate burial in a Long Island cemetery. Emotional thousands of the estate followed it to the entrance of the Williamsburg bridge, where the hearse and six carriages passed on the way to the grave. At the bridge the throng halted and there they waited until long after midnight, not crediting the information given by the police that none of the other funerals was to be held today.

In front of the homes or undertakers' establishments to which the other bodies were conveyed hundreds of curious persons gathered. Where the body of the trustee of the home of a Harlem church society, police reserves were called to prevent people from entering and viewing the corpse. The crowd resorted to a rude get rid of the crowd. He had a hearse back up to the door and into it an empty coffin was placed and driven away. Many were deceived and left. Horowitz's funeral will take place tomorrow and his body will be buried in the same cemetery where that of "Whitey Lewis" lies.

The police estimated that 10,000 persons viewed the body of "Dago Frank" Cirofio at a Bronx undertaker's place, passing by the caulk for more than six hours. Cirofio's mother, who was at Sing Sing during her son's last hours, was present at his home funeral. The funeral will take place Wednesday and the body will be buried in a Westchester county cemetery.

From Rosenthal on that occasion by men they thought were detectives.

PHYSICIANS FOR GREATER GRADY

A So-Called Disagreement Among the Doctors of Atlanta Rapidly Disappearing, It Is Declared.

The so-called split or disagreement among the doctors of Atlanta is rapidly disappearing, according to statements made at the meeting of the executive committee of the Greater Grady hospital board movement yesterday afternoon.

Attention was called to the practically unanimous endorsement of the Grady board issue by the Fulton County Medical society at its meeting Saturday night and the basis for that action. There were approximately 100 physicians present at this meeting, and after statements had been made to them as to the status of the trustees of the hospital toward the medical profession of the city generally, the resolution of the board was adopted. The resolution was to the effect that the Grady hospital board was a resolution passed on March 31.

This resolution provides that just as soon as there are facilities for it any Atlanta physician may send his patients to Grady and treat them there.

To issue a prospectus. The executive committee decided to issue just as soon as possible, a prospectus, dealing with every aspect of Grady hospital and showing the needs of Atlanta for very much enlarged hospital facilities.

In this prospectus there will be presented comparative views of Grady with hospitals in other cities of the size of Atlanta. Some photographs showing the needs of Atlanta for very much enlarged hospital facilities.

There were many expressions of opinion by the members of the committee over the active interest, the board and all the work among the work, and there was a feeling that his would prove most successful in bringing about the success of the election.

H. H. Proctor, pastor of the colored Congregational church, was appointed chairman of the negro committee, and all the work among the negro voters of the city will be directed by him.

Ad Men to Get Busy. There was discussion of preliminary plans for a big mass meeting of voters two or three nights before the bond election, and it is expected this week will be taken up by the Ad Men of Atlanta.

The Ad men are deeply interested in the success of the bond issue, and have devoted their next luncheon hour, Thursday, April 16, at 1 o'clock, at the Hotel Ansonia, to this subject. Dr. W. R. Sumner will speak on the subject of "The Grady Hospital and the Future of Atlanta."

President E. H. Goodheart, of the Ad Men's club, who is a member of the executive committee, will take up with the Ad men the matter of working up the proposed mass meeting, and the plan to hold a big bond issue campaign.

Women Pledge Aid. The women of Atlanta, through the leaders of their organizations, have pledged their organizations to work for the greater hospital movement and to co-operate with the men of Atlanta in the bond issue campaign. The plan was to have a meeting of the executive board of the City Federation of Women's clubs, over which Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin presided.

On the basis of assurances already made by state and national banks and federal authorities, the Reserve Bank of the Atlanta district will start with a capital of about $4,500,000. When organization is complete the Atlanta bank will have a capital of $4,641,415.

ECZEMA COVERED FACE COMPLETELY

Loss of Sleep Something Awful, Itching and Burning, Hated to Make Appearance in Public, Cures Soap and Ointment Cured.

714 West Grand Ave., Oklahoma City, Okla.—"My face was completely covered with eczema and the loss of sleep caused by the itching and burning of the sores was something awful. It itched and burned until I scratched it constantly and it broke out in sores which bled and oozed, a yellow fluid. It looked so badly that I hated to make my appearance in public."

"I tried a good many remedies for eczema but they did me no good whatever. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for the sores and bath and applied Cuticura Ointment to my face as often as I could before relief. After using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but one week my face was nearly well and after a month's steady use my face was completely cured." (Signed) J. Harry Harbison, July 15, 1913.

In the case of baby's skin and hair, Cuticura Soap is the mother's favorite. Not only is it unrivaled in purity and refreshing fragrance, but its gentle emollient properties are usually sufficient to allay minor irritations, remove dandruff, roughness and chafing, and soothe sensitive conditions. In the treatment of eczema, rashes and other itching, burning infantile eruptions, a single wet or dry application of Cuticura Soap is sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

MUST QUIT CHURCH OR LOCKER CLUBS

Stringent Resolutions Passed at Meeting of Atlanta Methodist Ministers' Union on Monday Morning.

Locker clubs and everyone who belongs to locker clubs, must exit from the church under the stern disapproval of the Atlanta Methodist Ministers' union. Furthermore, men who belong to both locker clubs and the Methodist church, must resign from one or the other. This resolution was reached Monday at a meeting of the union. Dr. H. M. DeLoach, pastor of the First Methodist church, introduced the resolution. It was promptly endorsed by everyone present. The resolution, finally passed, reads: "Whereas the organic law of our church, as stated in the discipline, is absolutely prohibitive of the manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicants as beverages; therefore, we reaffirm our loyalty to this temperance law, and hereby pledge ourselves to apply this law in our pastoral administration, relating to locker clubs and other organizations, in which intoxicants are sold contrary to the law of the church, and the state of Georgia."

GIRLS LEAVE HOME INTENDING TO MAKE CAREERS ON STAGE

Rosalie Cherry, age 16 years, and Maggie Fleming, age 13, ran away from their homes in Macon, Ga. Sunday with the intention of going to the stage. The two girls secured their passage to New York City by the way of a grocer in the neighborhood and secured it on a faked order from Mrs. Fleming, the mother of the younger girl.

The girls were caught in Atlanta Sunday afternoon, and held for Mrs. Fleming. Late Sunday afternoon Mrs. Fleming reached the city and returned home with her young daughter, after threatening to prosecute the older girl for luring her child from home. Mrs. Fleming wired Chief of Police Boyers Monday afternoon, but asked that she be turned over to her father, who would come to Atlanta Monday night to take possession of her.

RETURNS PROMISED TO ALL ENTRANTS

however, are coming in line to expectations, but there are many who are not yet heard from. The cash payment to be made to every energetic candidate who fails to receive the listed awards makes this an absolute certainty that all those who put forth the proper effort will be rewarded for their efforts. This is a novel condition of the contest, and offers a splendid opportunity for the benefit of those who are in need of money to this office. It costs nothing to make nominations, and it is not necessary to even be a subscriber to the Constitution. Every prize is free, and all who are ambitious and energetic are cordially invited to enter for the rich awards.

No Harmful Attributes.

Nothing of a harmful nature attend the gathering of votes in this contest. It is a simple matter of filling out a proposition. Selling a great newspaper like The Constitution is like selling the necessities of modern life—no more, no less. Competition is keen, as is the desire to succeed, but applied principles of diplomacy, judgment and effort are bound to bring deserved results. The Constitution distributes in this contest over $25,000 in automobiles, self-play pianos and cash prizes, and you might as well gather in your share of these good things. True, it is pleasant to sit in the shade by the wayside and watch others flounder in their costly and fruitless efforts. But to feel the powerful engine respond to the touch of your hands on the throttle, ready to carry you on with breathless speed, to annihilate time and space itself, and to safely land at a policeman—that is to be really happy.

The Constitution will welcome you heartily. Join in and help yourself up a notch by obtaining one of the rich awards. Or send in the name of someone else whom you desire to see benefited. In no case is there any notion of reserve stand in your way, or progress or efforts. Get out in front and stay there. Start in the direction that will carry you somewhere to something. Nomination blank and ballot coupon can be found on editorial page.

You Have Your Choice.

You may choose a Six-60, seven-passenger Oakland touring car, fully equipped with every convenience of mechanical arrangement that the Oakland Motor Car company, with its millions of capital, have been able to invent and apply. Nothing has been left undone to make this model a standard of excellence, both as to usefulness and beauty. You may well be pleased to become the possessor of one of these automobiles at the close of this contest. If you are first in number of votes in your division, an Oakland Six-60 is yours for Six-60. If you should fail to secure the largest number of votes in your division, but should find that you had the second largest number, then a Four-25, five-passenger Valis touring car, valued at $1,500 f. o. b. Atlanta, will be yours.

If, perhaps, so large a car as either of the above named is a little more than you care to possess, then choose a five thirty-five horsepower, five-passenger, Overland touring car. Model 77-7, fully equipped to choose from. These are conceded to be the standard of cars in this class. While not quite so costly as the larger machines, for service and comfort, the Overland Model 77-7 is up to the minute. Equipment is especially full with this car, and for beauty of line and action, the Overland is not bettered by any car on the market with the same power. One of these dandy automobiles is yours if you gain the first place in number of votes in your own district; and you only have to compete with those in your own district for it.

The second prize in each of the nine districts is a $120 Ludden & Bates self-play piano, which is the regular Ludden & Bates cabinet grand upright piano, into which has been built the most perfect player mechanism. The piano is therefore, two instruments in one—a piano for the musician or a self-player for those who have studied music. It has a handsome bench and scarf and fifteen rolls of music are included with each player.

Cash Prize Sure.

Any energetic contestant who enters this contest and sends The Constitution $100 or more in new subscriptions and fails to win one of the prizes, will be paid a cash prize at the rate of $10 for each $100 of new subscriptions sent in. It is sent to the contestant after the announcement of the results of the contest. All prizes are free, and they await those whose ambition prompts effort. No outlay of money is necessary. You can always be found on editorial page. The Daily and Sunday Constitution. Write your name upon it and send it to the office. This will entitle you to five thousand votes, and you will find that the vote will be sent rapidly thereafter by a little effort on your part. The vote will be sent simply fill in the nomination ballot, appearing on editorial page and send it to this office. Every contestant who enters this contest will receive an award as outlined above.

The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway announces that, effective April 14, dining car service will be inaugurated on Western & Atlantic Railroad trains Nos. 92, 93, 1 and 2. This provides dining car service on all through day trains of the Western & Atlantic Railroad.

PHYSICIANS A UNIT FOR GREATER GRADY

meeting, which held at noon at the woman's building, Mrs. Lumpkin explained that the women desired to be informed as to the details of the hospital campaign, that they might directly cooperate in the plan formed by the central committee. They wished to know the status of the Grady hospital as it exists today; what the needs are, and what the increased facilities should be.

Dr. W. B. Summerall, superintendent of the hospital, answered these questions in an able address. Mr. Ivan Allen spoke of the relation of the up-to-date hospital to civic progress; answered every question that was asked; expressed toward the proposed bond issue. Elsie Nelson referred to the opportunity that presented itself to Atlanta to have the best hospital in this section—an asset second to none in the progress of the city.

Dr. R. L. Connally, who is vice president of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Grady hospital, gave a brief history of the first woman's work done in connection with the Grady hospital.

Mrs. Nellie Peters Black, second vice president, discussed the same work and referred to former efforts of women in bringing about municipal legislation when they made it their duty to work on the indifferent voter—the man who did not vote at all.

Mrs. W. H. Wiggs asked for further information pertaining to the business phases of the bond issue, and was given the same by Dr. W. B. Black.

Dr. Black stressed the needs for certain emergency departments in the hospital, and described hospitals in other cities not so large nor so prosperous as Atlanta's, but believed an adequate, well-equipped hospital would increase Atlanta's population, decrease mortality, and make Atlanta the medical center of the central south.

Dr. Frederick Hodgson asked that Dr. Summerall furnish the organized women with certain facts which could be circulated and distributed by the women. Mr. Allen stated such information was in course of preparation.

The women suffragists of Atlanta will set on the greater hospital movement at meetings today, and the daughters of the American Revolution will aid with it at their meeting tomorrow. If speakers are desired at any of these meetings, they can be secured through conference with Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin.

All presidents of organizations are requested to send word of resolutions endorsing the greater hospital movement to Mrs. Harry Carter, secretary of the Atlanta Journal, Mrs. Louie Bell Wiley, of The Atlanta Georgian, and Miss Emma Dooley, Atlanta Constitution. Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, president of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, brought to the meeting of the Atlanta Woman's club yesterday afternoon the message of the greater hospital movement. She met with a ready response, the club pledging itself, through strong resolutions, to work for the movement.

Mrs. Hartwell Spaul brought the same message to the Alumnae of the Dixie High school assembled Monday to hear Dr. Howard Griggs lecture on the importance of the hospital story to the various departments of the Dixie High school, and Mrs. Haugh, president of the Council of Parent-Teacher associations of the Atlanta schools, also brought the greater hospital movement through strong resolutions, to work for the movement.

But $10.00 For Such Hats!

Surprising, to say the least. But there is a why and a wherefore. Successful Millinery is both a matter of business and of art.

As merchants, we cannot lose sight of either phase of it.

The business end of millinery requires us to watch costs—it concerns the elements, the flowers, the ribbons, the feathers, the shapes. It determines prices.

The artistic end concerns the use of these elements, it determines the style and charm of the hat. Therein lies

The Triumph of These $10.00 Hats

It is because our own milliners and Estelle Mershon, of 20 E. 46 St., are in closest touch with the authoritative styles and that they have the knack of turning the brim to just the proper curve, of placing a flower just so, of blending one color with another, that these hats at $10.00 are indeed works of art.

You should see them!

There are hats for every occasion; tailored hats as smart as can be; flowered hats that breathe the beauty of spring; feather and ribbon trimmed hats that are chic and Frenchy; flat crowned hats; pokes with sauciest of upturned brims; hats that fit the head closely and smartly—big cases filled with $10 hats that you will say look the part of a greater price.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

The New Double-Breasted

Double-breasted coats are quite the thing this Spring. Like all the new styles, they are short, trim, close fitting.

The SAVOY is a most happy combination of the double-breasted idea with all these little touches of newness. In all our Spring display, perhaps no suit is more worthy of the term "fifty" than this model.

Truly hand tailored and moderately priced, the SAVOY is a suit you ought to see at once.

You'll appreciate its good points; you'll enjoy wearing it.

The Price She Paid for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Which Brought Good Health.

Darville, Va.—"I have only spent ten dollars on your medicine and I feel so much better than I did when I was so ill. I don't suffer any bearing down pains at all now and I sleep well. I cannot say enough for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills as they have done so much for me. I am enjoying good health now and owe it all to your remedies. I take pleasure in telling my friends and neighbors about them."—Mrs. MARTIN HALEY, 501 Colquhoun Street, Darville, Va.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Taft Speaks at Unveiling Of Butt Memorial Today

Augusta, Ga., April 13.—(Special.)—A party of forty-four members of the American People's party, of the local Masons and their wives, from Washington, D. C., arrived here in a special train from Savannah at 6 o'clock, having come to Savannah in a special steamer, to take part tomorrow afternoon in the unveiling of the Arthur Butt memorial bridge.

The party was taken at once to the Bon Air, where a reception was held and furnished, but in a temporary way, as the bridge was not yet completed.

Such is Rev. A. C. Shuler's Opinion of Macon Society Folks.

Macon, Ga., April 12.—(Special.)—Rev. A. C. Shuler, of Atlanta, who is conducting a revival at the Second Baptist church in this city, does not think much of the spiritual Christianity of Macon people as a whole.

In his address last night he declared that "if Macon were as far-famed for its spiritual Christianity as it is for its bridge, it would be a bird."

"I have preached a little all over this state," said Mr. Shuler, "and I have been at the business long enough to know a few things about it and am spending a week in your city and talking with others who are in a position to know. I make the unqualified assertion that taking your city and churches as a whole you are the dearest crowd spiritually in the Empire state."

"Nobody in my city has ever been impressed with Macon as a spiritual center, but recently we were mightily impressed with her physical endurance when we read in the papers that the 'Smart Set' had held out to tango one whole night."

Interesting Program.—This meeting will attract many delegates from the various churches and organizations that have been prepared by Dr. Joseph Broughton, president of the association, and D. W. Sims, general secretary.

The special train will leave Atlanta tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for Macon. The delegates from the various churches and organizations will be met at the depot by a committee of the city.

OLDEST RESIDENT OF LAURENS COUNTY DIES AT AGE OF 103

Dublin, Ga., April 13.—(Special.)—James Barlow, of this county, is dead at the age of 103. He was born in 1811 and lived in this county all his life.

He was the oldest resident of Laurens county, having lived in this county since 1840. He was a farmer and a member of the Baptist church.

WAGONLOAD OF LOOT TAKEN BY BURGLARS

Bremen, Ga., April 13.—(Special.)—Burglars entered the store of W. W. Brown, at Waco, some time during Saturday night and carried away a wagonload of dry goods, groceries and other items. More than thirty pairs of shoes were stolen. There was no clue as to the guilty parties. About a wagonload of loot was taken.

MAMAMUS IS GRANTED AGAINST GRAND JURY

Must Show Cause for Not Hearing Savannah Liquor Cases.

Savannah, Ga., April 12.—(Special.)—In the superior court this morning Judge Walter G. Charlton granted a mandamus against members of the present grand jury to show cause why they should not hear witnesses and make their charges in the case of J. Wood, J. G. Eliopoulos and A. B. Babin, who are charged with violation of the prohibition law. He fixed the hearing for April 23.

The judge declined to issue a writ to compel the grand jurors to diligently inquire and true presents make of the matters in said warrants and indictments contained which have been returned against the defendants. He let all this out of the original petition, simply reciting the facts that show cause why they would not hear witnesses and make their findings.

ATLANTA CLOSES FOR FIRST GAME

the first Nashville batter that faces him.

Then Elliott Dent will assume charge and endeavor to twirl the Crackers to victory in the first battle with a regular foe. He scored four victories during the exhibition season, and intends to keep up his winning streak.

"What it takes to win the opening day attendance trophy Atlanta has got." That's our slogan for today, but it's strictly up to every one to get behind that slogan and make it stick.

There is a condition this year, however, that does not exist last year, and which must be met in order for Atlanta to win the opening day attendance trophy.

The cities that open away from home today will open at home next Saturday. These cities, New Orleans, Memphns, Mobile and Nashville, will, therefore, have a decided advantage over Atlanta, Birmingham, Chattanooga and Montgomery.

Of the cities that open today, Birmingham is the one that will bear the most watching. This is the city that Atlanta must defeat to win the prize.

PARADE BEFORE GAME

The ad men, with their slogan, "Absolutely," have been working faithfully for several days to win the automobile parade. They met at the hotel for their luncheon last Thursday at the Ansley where they appointed a committee to make plans for the parade. They had all the ad men in town and other fans.

Their first move was to have printed a slogan with the slogan "Absolutely Always Ahead" and to have the parade be stretched across Peachtree and Whitehall streets, to remind every one of the slogan.

By associating with the chamber of commerce and the Atlanta Automobile club, the association has made arrangements for the parade this afternoon before the game. They have the local automobile dealer have fun.

New York, April 13.—Grante

Harry Schlesinger's "High Fly" candy baseball confection will be thrown around during the parade, and men having purchased several thousand of this delightful confection will be the winners on the trucks. With the creamers and many megaphones, hand pennants and many noise-producing instruments, the men will be there, and will let everyone know it.
